Homebuying Readiness Checklist

A practical resource for an informed conversation. Work at your own pace and verify the details that matter to you.

Your starting point

☐ Write down why a move matters to you and what can wait.

☐ Separate essential needs from preferences.

☐ Note a comfortable timeline and any lease or sale commitments.

Prepare for an informed conversation

☐ Ask a licensed lender about eligibility, documented funds, total monthly costs and available loan options.

☐ Collect relevant income, asset and identification documents securely; do not email sensitive documents casually.

☐ List the cash reserves you want to preserve and costs you need explained.

Your planning notes

Choose a useful next step

☐ Select areas to research with reliable, current sources.

☐ Identify commute, accessibility and household requirements without assumptions about neighborhoods.

☐ Agree with your agent on a communication method and follow-up timing.

Priority or question	Source / next step	Responsible person

Agent / brokerage: _____
Contact details: _____
Required local and brokerage disclosures: _____

Educational planning information only; not legal, tax, lending, engineering or investment advice. No property facts, valuation or outcomes are promised. Replace the blank branding and disclosure fields using an approved subscriber Brand Kit before sharing.